

Year 7 “Recommended Reading” List 2006/2007

Action & Adventure

Malorie Blackman	Hacker	One of Blackman’s most popular books. Two computer whizzkids try to prove their father is innocent of bank theft. A gripping read.
NM Browne	Warriors of Alavna	Blistering time-slip novel where Dan and Ursula are whisked back in time to the tough unforgiving world of Alavna in 75AD.
Anne Cassidy	Innocent	Great junior novel from Cassidy, as Charlie tries to prove the innocence of her older brother Brad.
Charlie Higson	Silverfin (Young Bond Series)	Hopefully the first in a popular new series about James Bond when he was still at school.
Garry Kilworth	Attika	The deeper they went into the attic, the more the darkness seemed to close around them... A great tale in the grand tradition of Narnia.
G. McCaughrean	Not the End of the World	Captivating novelisation of the story of Noah and his Arc. This thoughtful reworking of the famous Bible story makes the characters very, very real.
Robert Muchamore	CHERUBS	Big adventures and exciting at the teenage recruits at CRURUB battle the underworld’s of the World. Now 3 books of a very popular series.
William Nicholson	Wind on Fire Trilogy	Breathtaking trilogy about a society governed by exams. But what happens when you rebel? Read to find out. A truly excellent trilogy.
Gary Paulsen	Hatchet	Thrilling adventure about the survival of a 12 year old boy after a plane crash. Also has great sequels.
Chris Ryan	Survival	The ultra tough and realistic novels of Chris Ryan are a must for youngsters seeking excitement and thrills. This “Alpha Force” novel is the start of a gripping new series.
Chris Ryan	Flash Flood	First of a new series from Ryan. London is in chaos and anarchy after the collapse of the Thames Barrier! A great page turner.
Louis Sachar	Holes	Very popular novel about a miscarriage of justice that sends Stanley into a juvenile prison and an assignment to dig “holes”. Compulsive reading.
	Small Steps	Funny loose sequel to Holes with a couple of the minor-characters taking centre stage in an amusing get rich scheme that goes wrong.
Chris Wooding	Storm Thief	One of the best action fantasies I read this year. Fast paced, exciting and in a fantasy world so well crafted this has to be the first book in a fabulous series!

Relationships & Conflicts

Julia Bell	Massive	Thought provoking look at teenage anorexia.
------------	----------------	---------------------------------------------

Cathy Hopkins	Mates, Dates..(series)	Long running series of Lucy and her friends and their funny experiences of growing up. These are very popular books.
Eva Ibbotson	Journey to the River Sea	An orphaned school girl's journey to South America with her tough-as-old-boots nanny. Already very popular and destined to become a modern classic.
Karen McCombie	Ally's World (series)	After 12+ books the Ally's World series has recently ended. The series follows a group of friends from the age of 12 until they go to university.
Jerry Spinelli	Stargirl	Brilliant and brave novel about a teenager daring to be different in an American high school. Highly recommended.
Jacqueline Wilson	Double Act Girls (trilogy)	Twin girls have trouble with their new stepmum. Another great book by Jacqueline Wilson. Follow the lives of Ellie, Magda and Nadine as they grow up in this wonderful series of books.
Benjamin Zephaniah	Face	Realistic story of how a boy is disfigured in a car accident and has to start living a new life with his disfigurement.

Classics

Louisa M Alcott	Little Women	First in the series of classic novels of 4 sisters growing up in 1860s America written from the point of view of Jo, who would dearly like to become a writer.
Richard Bach	Jonathan Livingston Seagull	Uplifting story of a young seagull's bid to live its life as free as possible. A beautifully crafted short read.
Charlotte Bronte	Jane Eyre	Jane falls in love with her rich employer, only to find out he has a dark secret....Classic stuff that has thrilled generations.
Charles Dickens	A Christmas Carol	Read about Scrooge yourself; much better than any film you may have seen of it.
Conan Doyle	Adventures of Sherlock Holmes	This is a great introduction to detective stories. Many of the best Holmes stories are in this collection.
Penelope Farmer	Charlotte Sometimes	Dream-like novel where Charlotte, whilst sleeping, somehow slips back in time to 1919 and becomes Clare... Wonderful.
Elizabeth Goudge H Rider Haggard	Little White Horse King Solomon's Mines	Haunting story of a unicorn appearing at Moonacre Valley. An exciting yarn about an explorer who was the inspiration for the Indiana Jones films.
W W Johns	Biggles Flies West	One of many exciting novels set in the skies over France and Germany in World War 2 following the adventure of Biggles.
Lois Lowry	The Giver	Challenging novel set in an almost-fantasy world where emotions are suppressed and your destiny is chosen for you. Jonas is chosen to be the "Giver" of the title. For strong readers.
Mark Twain	Adventures of Tom Sawyer &amp; Adventures of Huckleberry Finn	Adventure, freedom and excitement are in abundance in these two novels set in the American deep south during the great depression. Highly recommended.

Fantasy

Eoin Colfer	The Wish List	Funny novel in which Lowrie has to complete 4 idiotic tasks to get into heaven. By the writer of the Artemis Fowl series.
Catherine Fisher	Corbenic	Arthurian myths and legends are skilfully woven into this moving story of a teenager struggling with family life.
Nancy Farmer	Sea of Trolls	A sweeping Viking novel with 2 young children being held captive by the evil half-troll king Ivar the Boneless.
CS Lewis	Narnia series	Perhaps the ultimate battle between Good and Evil? Classic tale of children trying to awaken an animal world from eternal winter. 7 books in series.
Alan Gibbons	Shadow of the Minotaur	Computer game virtual reality becomes reality in this compulsive read. Highly recommended.
Sheryl Jordan	Hunting the Last Dragon	Be thrilled by the crippled youngster Lan's quest to kill the last dragon in this top notch fantasy story.
Cliff McNish	The Silver Child	An intriguing and sinister tale set in a lawless land with 2 twins trying to survive in a dangerous fantasy world.
Sally Prue	Goldkeeper	Engaging fantasy novel set in the Temple of Ora where Sebastian is chosen to be the next High Priest's Apprentice.
Philip Reeves	Mortal Engines	Superb fantasy novel where moving cities trawl the globe. Tom and Hester are thrown from their beloved "London" and try to get back on board. A highly original read, the series now completed with " A Darkling Plan ".

Ghosts & Horror

Malorie Blackman	Dead Gorgeous	After moving to the countryside, Nova befriends a dead boy with too many problems of his own. The only problem for Nova is that the ghost is also very, very cute!
Stephen Cole	Wereling Trilogy	Really enjoyable horror series about a family of werewolves and the teenage daughters fight against her changeover. Startling and original.
